TREASURER'S REPORT: Bob discussed/answered questions regarding the (Jan. 1-Nov. 30) report. The report was accepted as presented

OLD BUSINESS:

- Annual Book Sale, discussed additional sales in May and October in addition to the July sale. The May and October sales will take place in the community room of the library. After trying Saturday sales during October, we did have spotty success.
- A calendar of events for 2019 was reviewed and discussed. There is a need for a chairperson for the "What Book Clubs are Reading". This will be the third annual gathering of area Book Clubs sharing their past readings. If you are willing to chair this fun event, contact Stevie or our new President, Larry Williams.
- In addition, Marsha Meyer volunteered to contact the RAC Center Book Club to share what they have read at the event.
- Due to weather and daylight savings concerns, there may be a possibility of changing the "Antique Appraisal" event. Tabled for a later discussion.

NEW BUSINESS:

- Cindy is trying to update the membership list. If you are no longer able/interested in participating in the library events, please contact Cindy. Please let Cindy know if you DO NOT want your information shared.
- Jan. 17 Michigan author, Joe Heywood, will speak at 7PM in the library. June M will co-chair the event. Mr. Heywood has written the Woods Cop Mysteries

NEXT MEETING: January 17, 2019

MOTION TO ADJOURN: Marsha moved to adjourn at 11:54 AM and Cindy seconded the motion.

Respectfully submitted, June L. Schertzer
