

How they met.

Jane's friends always left her out. And they had chosen a Tuesday to leave her out (Jane was born on a Tuesday). So Jane went home, crying. She packed some food to run away. She packed two loaves of bread, ten apples, eight oranges, five potatoes, two bags of grapes, a bag of carrots, and ten sugar cubes. Then, she headed west. Meanwhile, Haley's friend, Horse shoe, started kicking her. Horse shoe's friend, Kitty girl, joined her. Comet decided to join Haley. Diamond and her sister, Heart, joined Horse shoe. The other boy, Eli, joined Haley. Suddenly, Uni-baby joined Haley. Haley ran away east. She took her sisters, Bee-bee and Hay, with her. Jane and Haley had been on the road for ten miles when they met. Jane gave Haley all her sugar cubes. Haley, in return, let Jane ride on her back. Jane got very good at it. Presently, they came to an old house. Nobody lived in it. So Jane and Haley lived there, for as long as they can remember.
